INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors LaBrunerie Financial Services, Inc. 700 Cherry Street, Suite D Columbia, Missouri

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of LaBrunerie Financial Services, Inc. (a Missouri Scorporation) as of December 31, 2002 and the related statements of income, retained earnings, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Labrunerie Financial Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2002 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the Unites States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion of the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained on page 10 of our report is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, and in conformity with the rules of the Securities Exchange Commission.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2002

NOTE A--SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Business Activities: The company was incorporated on September 8, 1994 and provides services as a registered broker and dealer. Revenues and expenses consist primarily of commissions received and paid.

Security Trading: On security trades by customers, the Company acts as the introducing broker on a fully disclosed basis. Customer accounts are maintained on the books of the carrying broker.

Basis of Accounting: The company uses the accrual basis of accounting, which is consistent with generally accepted accounting principles.

Plant and Equipment: Purchases and equipment with a useful life of more than one year are capitalized. Depreciation is based on the useful life of the asset and charged to income ratably over that life. Repairs and improvements which significantly increase the useful life of an asset are capitalized.

Commissions Receivable and Payable: Commissions receivable at December 31, 2002 were $3,181.00. Commissions payable at December 31, 2002 were $2,544.80. All commissions receivable and payable were less than 30 days.

Income Taxes: The Company has elected to be taxed under the provisions of subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. As an S-corporation all items of income and expense are passed through to shareholders to be taxed on their individual income tax returns.

Use of Estimates: Generally accepted accounting principles require the use of estimates in the preparation of financial statements. Actual amounts may differ from estimated amounts.

Personnel Policies: The company pays its sales personnel on a commission basis and considers sales personnel to be self-employed. No taxes are withheld on commissions paid.

Advertising: Advertising costs are expensed as incurred.

Compensated Absences: Compensated absences have not been accrued in the financial statements because the amount cannot be reasonably estimated.
